LIVER DIDN'T ACT DIGESTION WAS BAD

Says 65 year Old Kentucky Lady, Who Tells How She Was Relieved After a Few Doses of Black-Draught.

Meadowville, Ky.—Mrs. Cynthia Higginbotham, of this town, says: "At my age, which is 65, the liver does not act so well as when young. A few years ago, my stomach was all out of fix. I was constipated, my liver didn't act. My digestion was bad, and it took so little to upset me. My appetite was gone. I was very weak... I decided I would give Black-Draught a thorough trial as I knew it was highly recommended for this trouble. I began taking it. I felt better after a few doses. My appetite improved and I became stronger. My bowels acted naturally and the least trouble was soon righted with a few doses of Black-Draught."

Compares Address of Wilson With Lincoln's

Ottawa, Canada.—"President Wilson's message is one of the most important contributions since Lincoln's time to the literature of freedom and democracy," Sir Wilfrid Laurier declared in a statement made here. "It is greatly inspiring to the free people of the world who are battling for the rights of civilization against tyranny, autocracy and maniacal efforts of Prussianism."

"The entrance of the largest democracy of the world into the arena completely extinguishes any fleeting hope of victory that Germany may have foolishly held, and, as I hope and believe, it tends to shorten the conflict, it is a great humanitarian act."

"To the Canadian people the event is one of very considerable importance. It means that the people of the North American continent will fight shoulder to shoulder in a common cause and from that we may naturally expect closer friendship and sympathies with all the benefits that will flow therefrom."

"The President's action will carry all the more weight because it was not dictated by sudden impulse. It was the deliberate expression of what had become an imperative duty. Like Lincoln in the summer of 1862 who, the resolved to abolish slavery, calmly submitted to many clamorous rebukes from impatient abolitionists and waited for the most opportune moment, the President also waited, and he has now the proud satisfaction of unanimous support from all sections of the American people, the German element not excluded."

"As to the language of the President it is on the highest level, both in thought and in expression, and is simply beyond praise."

How to Help Nail
Up a Church Door

Nail No. 1.—Do not go to church when the weather is too warm—a close atmosphere is not beneficial to bodily health; your spiritual health will suffer through sympathy.

Nail No. 2.—Do not go to church when the weather is too cold; there is no money—except for the doctor—in church drafts. Remember, that people are more liable to get cold in a church than elsewhere.

Nail No. 3.—Be sure to be late. If you do not impress people with your importance, you may with your appearance. On that account take a front seat, so that because the service has begun—then pray.

Nail No. 4.—Take an interest in everything but the service; the minister and choir will attend to that, that is what they are there for. Take sufficient interest to notice all mistakes and tell them to everybody.

Nail No. 5.—Be sure to put the smallest piece of money possible in the plate. This will give you the right to find fault to an unlimited extent.

Nail No. 6.—Don't fail to forget the hour of meeting for church work. This is very encouraging to the minister. Find fault with everything that has been done and refuse to do anything because you are not at the head of it, or, at least, have not been consulted. If the venture is a success, then say: "Look what we have done." If it is a failure, say, "I had nothing to do with it."

Nail No. 7.—Be sure and tell the minister his faults. Let it be known far and wide that he will not compare favorably with his predecessor; it will surely come to his ears. Humble him if you can; he may be getting proud.

Nail No. 8.—On no account send the minister word when you are ill. He should know all about it. It is enough to send for the doctor. After he calls tell him you were ill, and how he neglected you.

Nail No. 9.—Arrange all of your baptisms, weddings, funerals, etc., without consulting the minister. He has no right to make engagements that will conflict with your arrangements, and if he has made them, he should break them—for you.

Finally Cured by Using
One Dollar Bottle of Amolox.

One bottle of Amolox cured me. For ten years I suffered with eczema of the scalp, my head being covered with scales and scabs. I tried everything recommended and everything advertised without relief until I bought a bottle of Amolox. It relieved the itching at once and one bottle entirely cured my eczema. I heartily and cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers of this horrible disease.

CANDIDATE CARDS.

With the election only a few months off it is high time that the candidates were shelling the woods. Ought to put up a few cards on trees fence posts and other public places. But what is better than this is put your ad in this paper and tell the people what you intend to do for them. The people want to know for what you stand. If you are standing only for the office and salary, then they don't want you. Such a man is high at any old salary.

Popular Couple Wed

The marriage of Miss Gertrude Rose, of Lexington, to Mr. William Crutcher, of Winchester, took place in Lexington Wednesday morning. After a few days in Louisville the couple will return to Lexington and later will be at home on the groom's farm on Muddy Creek pike in this county. The bride formerly lived in Winchester and is popular and attractive. The groom is a son of Hon. B. A. Crutcher and Mrs. Crutcher, and is a young man of sterling character. The Democrat joins a host of friends in extending best wishes and congratulations.—Winchester Democrat.

The groom is a son of Commonwealth's Attorney Ben A. Crutcher, and has many friends and relatives in Richmond and Madison county, with whom we join in extending congratulations.

Try them. Foley Kidney Pills will do for older men and women—quickly—but they have done for Mrs. Strayhorn. "Last year, I got almost down with my back," writes Mrs. H. T. Strayhorn, of Champaign, Ga. "It was so bad I suffered from inflammation of the bladder, and whenever I stood or walked I grew worse. I tried Foley Kidney Pills, and after taking them awhile my bladder action became regular and the stinging sensation disappeared. I am now back to my old self and have been for several years, and since getting well I feel strong and well and have no return of the trouble."

At the Front

Since the advent of the United States into the great world war, much courage and renewed vigor seems to have permeated the ranks of the allied forces, and in France, England and Russian great ovations and demonstrations have been accorded this country by those nations now engaged in a death struggle to free themselves from the cruel, ruthless and inhuman grasp of autocratic power and force. A number of South American countries—nearly all of them—since the proclamation of war issued by this country, have severed diplomatic relations with Germany, and those countries which stand out as neutrals, according to reports, are most friendly to the United States and fully recognize the justness of her acts. Messages coming from abroad, state that the American flag is now being carried by the armies of France and floats serenely from many buildings, giving hope, confidence and cheer to those gallant soldiers and noble people, who have fought so bravely to maintain their honor and integrity against the inquisition of cruel force.

Women Voters in Ark.

Of the many recent grants of partial suffrage to women, that in Arkansas is most curious. There, by a bill just signed, women are to have equal rights with men in primaries. They must pay poll tax, swear to support party candidates, and otherwise possess the qualifications exactly of male voters.

The logic of this seems a trifle strained, particularly the requirement that the newly enfranchised women must swear to support their party nominees, which they may not do without the right to vote at elections. Yet they gain a practical advantage, for the primaries in that State are, in effect, the elections. Last fall vote for presidential electors was: Democratic, 112,000; Republican, 49,000; for Governor, Democratic, 122,000; Republican, 43,000.

Thus, the women who participate in the primaries and exercise their new rights will actually aid in determining the personnel of officialdom, and it seems reasonable to expect that after a short time full suffrage will come to them. In any case, this break in the "solid south" with its notorious prejudice against woman suffrage, is an indication of the growth of the movement to enfranchise women.—New York Tribune.

A Commendable Prayer

We do not know who Homer McKee happens to be, but certainly Homer McKee's prayer, as published by the Kansas State Board of Health, is something that would be worth while for all of us to consider; and if we commit the principle to heart we can not go far astray. Here it is:

Teach me that 60 minutes make an hour, 16 ounces one pound and 100 cents one dollar.

Help me to live that I can lie down at night with a clear conscience, without a gun under my pillow and haunted by the faces of those to whom I have brought pain.

Grant, I beseech Thee, that I may earn my meal ticket on the square, and in doing thereof that I may not stick the gaff where it does not belong.

Deafen me to the jingle of tainted money and the rustle of unholy skirts. Blind me to the faults of the other fellow, but reveal to me my own.

Guide me so that each night when I look across the dinner table at my wife, who has been a blessing to me, that I will have nothing to conceal.

Keep me young enough to laugh at my children and to lose myself in their play.

And then when comes the smell of flowers and the tread of soft steps, and the crunching of the horse's wheels in the gravel out in front of my place, make the ceremony short and the epitaph simple: "Here lies a man."
